

Declaration of Eligibility for Q-Ride Training and Assessment

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995

Use this form to declare that you are eligible to enrol in a Q-Ride training and assessment course for the issue of a Queensland (Qld) motorcycle licence. You will also need to show your current driver licence to the Q-Ride Registered Service Provider (RSP) before you commence training. If you hold a foreign driver licence that is not in English you must show a recognised translation.

Your Q-Ride RSP may require you to provide a Q-Ride Course Eligibility Certificate or a driver licence history to confirm that you meet the eligibility requirements before accepting your enrolment. To obtain your driver licence history, you will need to complete a Release of Information Application (form F2121) and lodge it at a Department of Transport and Main Roads customer service centre and pay the applicable fee.

1. Q-Ride course enrolment and eligibility

To enrol in a Q-Ride course you must meet eligibility requirements. Please tick one of the boxes below to indicate the licence you currently hold which aligns to the course you are enrolling in.

Pre-learner course:

- a current class C provisional, probationary or open licence (or interstate or foreign licence equivalent) and have held it for at least one year.

Restricted (class RE) course:

- a class RE learner licence
Note: If issued after 1 October 2016 and completed a pre-learner course, you must have held it for at least three months, or if you were exempt from the pre-learner course you must have held it for at least one year.
- an interstate or foreign motorcycle learner licence and have held the licence for at least three months
- a foreign motorcycle licence equivalent to a class RE or class R provisional or open licence
- a licence with an 'RD' condition, and a Returning Driver Certificate stating you can learn to ride a motorcycle.

Unrestricted (class R) course:

- a class RE provisional or open licence (or interstate or foreign licence equivalent) and have held it for at least two years
Note: If issued before 1 October 2016, you are eligible to do the unrestricted (class R) course after one year.
- a foreign motorcycle licence equivalent to a class R provisional or open
- a licence with an 'RD' condition, and a Returning Driver Certificate stating you can learn to ride an R motorcycle.

Important note: Your driver licence must not be expired, suspended or cancelled and you must not be disqualified by order of an Australian or overseas court from holding or obtaining a driver licence. For more information, please refer to the Q-Ride Training and Assessment Information Sheet (form S4506), visit www.qld.gov.au/transport or phone 13 23 80*.

2. Applicant's details

4. Declaration

Sign in the presence of the Q-Ride RSP.

I declare that I meet the eligibility requirements to undertake Q-Ride for the above mentioned Q-Ride course.

I understand that any Q-Ride Competency Declaration given to me by a Q-Ride RSP at a time when I was not eligible to undertake Q-Ride will be void and will not be recognised by the department for the purpose of granting a motorcycle licence.

I declare that my driver licence is not expired, cancelled or suspended for any reason and I am not disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver licence by order of an Australian or overseas court.

I agree to promptly notify the Q-Ride RSP if, while undertaking Q-Ride my driver licence expires or is cancelled or suspended for any reason, or I am disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver licence under a court order.

The information provided by me in this declaration is complete, true and correct in every detail.
